HOUSE OF THE REPRESENTAIVES
Constitution Hills, Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1357

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE BERNADETTE HERRERA-DY

AN ACT RECOGNIZING THE CIVIL PARTNERSHIP OF COUPLES, PROVIDING THEIR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

1 Section I, Article III of the 1987 Constitution provides:
2

3 "Section 1. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without 4 due process of law, nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the 5 laws."

7 While there has been greater acceptance of minority groups in recent years, it is 8 notable, however, that the Philippines has not made sufficient strides in providing some of 9 the most basic civil rights to couples who are not eligible for marriage under the law. A large
10 part of this affected population is the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT)
11 community. By reason of their sexual orientation and who they love, they are excluded
12 from entering into legally recognized and protected unions.

14 This exclusion exacerbates the reality that most, if not all of these couples confront. For 15 example, they cannot declare their partners as beneficiaries under social security and 16 insurance plans. Further, they are unable to inherit through intestate rights in the event of the 17 death of their partner. These restrict basic liberties that are available to most citizens,
18 despite these couples taking part in loving, committed and long-term relationships.
19

20 This bill, recognizing the Constitutional right of all Filipinos to equal protection of 21 the laws and to freely associate with others, hereby proposes to allow couples to enter into 22 a civil partnership, whether they are of the opposite or of the same sex. It aims to be a
23 landmark effort to provide civil rights, benefits, and responsibilities to couples, previously
24 unable to marry, by giving them due recognition and protection from the State. Lastly, it
25 protects civil partnership couples by penalizing unlawful and discriminatory practices
26 committed by persons or institutions against them on the basis of their civil partnership status.

1 Ultimately, at the core of a civil partnership are two fully consenting adults who, like
2 many Filipinos, merely wish to love, care and support each other as they build a life together
3 during their fleeting time here on earth. It is about time that the Philippine government
4 grant couples, whether they are of the opposite or of the same sex, adequate legal 5 instruments to recognize their partnerships, respecting their dignity and recognizing their 6 equality before the law.

7
8 In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is highly and earnestly sought.
