EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 2659

Introduced by REP. IAN PAUL L. DY

AN ACT
ESTABLISHING A REGULAR DISTRICT OFFICE OF THE LAND
TRANSPORTATION OFFICE (LTO) IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF ALICIA,
PROVINCE OF ISABELA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a Regular District Office of the Land Transportation Office (LTO) in the Municipality of Alicia, Province of Isabela. It aims to meet the needs of the motoring public such as inspection and registration of motor vehicles, issuance of licenses and permits and other related services. Said office will cater the municipalities in the 3rd Congressional District in the province of Isabela.

The Land Transportation Office (LTO) in Santiago City and Cauayan City Extension Office are the nearest in the area at present. The establishment of a Regular Office in Alicia, Isabela will benefit the municipalities of the 3rd Congressional District and the nearby municipalities, and the delivery of the government services relative to Land Transportation will bring closer to the people.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
