AN ACT TO FURTHER STRENGTHEN THE ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING ACT, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE SECTIONS 3, 3(a), 3(b), 3(g), 3(i), 7, 7(5), 7(6), 7(7), 7(11), 9(a), 9(c), 10, 11, 14(c), 15, and 16; AND REPEALING SECTION 20 OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 9160, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE “ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING ACT OF 2001”, AS AMENDED

The banking system of the Philippines remains strong and stable, but there are cracks in our financial institutions people of greed have used to their advantage. The “Bangladeshi Bank Heist” in February 2016, considered as one of the largest cyberheists in recent history, exposed the vulnerabilities of the Anti-Money Laundering Act (AMLA) in curtailing money-laundering schemes in the country.

In view of the events that have exposed legal weaknesses in the banking system, the passage of an amendment to the AMLA should be of utmost importance to a resurgent economy like the Philippines; We ought to strengthen the regulatory regimes that govern the flow of our money by way of an amendment to AMLA.

According to the Financial Action Task Force, the international body that sets standards on combating terrorist financing and money laundering, money launderers are now using Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions (DNFBPs) such as casinos, real estate agents, dealers in precious metals and stones, lawyers, notaries, accountants and trust and company service providers in covering their transactions. Thus, the FATF recommends expanding the scope of reporting institutions/entities by including in the definition of covered institutions under the AMLA the designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions, as mentioned.

For example, the exposure of casinos to the raging threats of money laundering can be attributed to the fact that they are cash intensive businesses with high volumes of large cash transactions taking place very quickly; that they offer many financial services such as remittance, cash issuing and foreign exchange; that the movement of funds, either internationally or domestically undertaken, associated with gaming-related tourism is poorly understood; and, that the casino industry is unregulated for anti-money laundering purposes.

In order to make Republic Act No. 9160, also known as the Anti-Money Laundering
Act of 2001 (AMLA), as amended, more effective in combating money laundering, this bill seeks to amend by:

1. Including casinos, real estate brokers, art dealers, and motor vehicle dealers as covered persons;
2. Changing the nomenclature for the covered person “jewelry dealers” in precious metals and stones to “dealers” in precious metals and stones, and including jewelry dealers as a separate covered person;
3. Clarifying the definition of covered transactions depending on the covered person;
4. Designating the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas as the Supervising Authority of foreign exchange dealers, money changers, and remittance and money transfer businesses, for purposes of the AMLA;
5. Adding unlawful activities under Section 3(i) of the AMLA, such as violations of firearms and ammunitions regulation act, cybercrimes, violations of strategic trade management act (regarding weapons of mass destruction), and tax evasion;
6. Authorizing the AMLC, instead of the Court of Appeals, to issue ex parte freeze order with respect to some unlawful activities;
7. Authorizing the AMLC to check compliance with the AMLA by covered persons not under any Supervising Authority;
8. Authorizing the AMLC to issue subpoena and administer oath in aid of its investigation and compliance checking functions;
9. Update the requirement on customer identification to include all aspects of customer due diligence;
10. Authorizing the covered persons to temporarily withhold transaction and/or withhold subsequent transactions not exceeding two (2) banking days from occurrence of the transaction, in the course of verifying whether a transaction is suspicious or not; and terminate the transaction or account in case they find reasonable belief that there is possible violation of the AMLA;
11. Reducing the required quantum of evidence as basis for an authority to inquire into or examine bank accounts or investments;
12. Adding unlawful activities that are exempted from the requirement of a court order before a bank inquiry may be conducted;
13. Allowing the BSP to check AMLA compliance of covered persons under its supervision or regulation pursuant to its supervisory powers under Section 4 of Republic Act No. 8791;
14. Increasing the monetary penalty for administrative sanctions;
15. Allowing Supervising Authorities to impose administrative sanctions, without prejudice to AMLC’s power to impose administrative sanctions; and
16. Repealing Section 20 of Republic Act 9160, as amended by Republic Act No. 10365.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
