Eighteenth Congress

HOUSE BILL NO. 8727

Introduced by Representative Luisa Lloren Cuaresma

AN ACT
CONVERTING THE MUNICIPALITY OF SOLANO IN THE PROVINCE OF NUEVA VIZCAYA INTO A COMPONENT CITY TO BE KNOWN AS THE CITY OF SOLANO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

With the enactment of Republic Act 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, municipalities and cities have both become more empowered to deal with local issues. This is on account of the fact that the Local Government Code of 1991 has provided for the empowerment of local government units (LGUs) by decentralizing government powers. Presently, LGUs have been provided vast opportunities in effectively governing their respective area and constituents. Moreover, the delivery of basic services mandated by RA 7160 has become more effective and responsive, because LGUs are given wide latitude of discretion in determining the needs of the people residing within their jurisdiction.

The agriculturally based province of Nueva Vizcaya is composed of fifteen (15) municipalities which are mostly upland areas inhabited by various indigenous tribes. Despite of its economic growth, however, Nueva Vizcaya has no city of its own.
In order to bolster the development and progress of the province, and considering that one of its municipalities, particularly the Municipality of Solano, could fairly meet the criteria set forth under Section 450 of RA 7610 and other pertinent laws, it is imperative that a law be enacted for its conversion into a city.

The Municipality of Solano is geographically located at the heart of the province which strategically links the other towns and serves as the center of trade and commerce in the Province of Nueva Vizcaya. Its conversion into a component city would serve as an engine of growth to spur commercial and industrial activities and hasten the development of the entire province. The future even looks more promising for the town and undoubtedly, its conversion into a component city would pave the way to more opportunities both for Solano and the entire Province of Nueva Vizcaya.

In view of the foregoing, the urgent approval of this bill is strongly recommended.
