House Bill No. 9332

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Presidential Decree No. 114, or the "Pawnshop Regulation Act" was enacted last January 29, 1973 or almost 50 years ago.

Pawnshops provide an additional source of credit especially for small borrowers left unserved by the banking and other financial institutions in the country. Before PD 114, there is no specific law in the Philippines that governs pawnshop establishments, particularly providing definite and uniform standards for their operation. This is the main reason why PD 114 was enacted.

However, PD 114 is no longer responsive to present conditions. Further, many pawnshop operators take advantage and abuse their clients with the number 1 complaint being high, or even exorbitant, interest rates.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly requested.

RUFUS B. RODRIGUEZ

If such excessive or unauthorized charges have been paid by the pledger, the pledger may recover the same, including the principal, if paid, in a civil action against the pawnbroker.

(D) In addition to the loan finance charge authorized by this Act, a pawnbroker may charge, contract for, and receive a fee not to exceed one-fifth (1/5) of the principal amount of the loan per month or any fractional part of a month for servicing the pledge that may include investigation of the title, storing, providing security, appraisal, handling, making daily reports to local enforcement officers, and for other expenses and costs associated with servicing the pledge.

The appropriate government agency shall annually make an analysis and a recapitulation of such reports, which shall be a matter of public record. If the person is unable to write, the person shall sign by mark. In such event the pawnbroker shall record on the signature card such information as will enable the pawnbroker to identify the person in case of the loss of the ticket. If the person does not have a right thumb, any other existing finger may be used. However, a clear print must be obtained.

SEC 20. Pawn Ticket. — The pawnbroker shall, at the time of making a loan, deliver to the pledger or the pledger's agent a memorandum or ticket on which shall be legibly written or printed:

If the remittance is insufficient to cover the amount due, the pawnbroker shall either notify the remitter of the amount of the deficiency or send the pledge subject to the payment of shipping charges by the consignee. The pawnbroker's liability for the pledge shall cease upon delivery of the pledge to the carrier or his agent.

SEC 23. Presentation of Ticket before Maturity. — Upon presentation of the pawn ticket prior to maturity and the payment of accrued interest and charge the tender of not less than P50.00 of the principal balance, the pawnbroker shall accept the same, showing due credit of principal payment on pawn ticket, together with the amount of unpaid principal balance, or issue a new ticket for the reduced amount. Future interest charges and charge shall be computed on the unpaid principal balance.
SEC 24. Lost, Destroyed or Stolen Ticket. — If a ticket is lost, destroyed, or stolen, the pledger shall so notify the pawnbroker in writing. Before delivering the collateral or issuing a new ticket, the pawnbroker shall require the pledger to make an affidavit of the alleged loss, destruction or theft of the ticket. Upon receipt of such affidavit, the pawnbroker shall permit the pledger either to redeem the loan or to receive a new ticket upon the payment of accrued interest and charges, and the pawnbroker shall incur no liability for so doing, unless the pawnbroker had previously received written notice of any adverse claim. The pawnbroker may collect reasonable fee for reissuing the pawn ticket or affecting the affidavit along with the current lawful charge for notary fee.

SEC 25. Alteration of Tickets. — The alteration of a ticket shall not excuse the pawnbroker who issued it from liability to deliver the pledge according to the terms of the ticket as originally issued, but shall relieve the pawnbroker of any other liability to the pledge or holder of the ticket.

SEC 26. Liability for Loss. — A pawnbroker shall be liable for the loss of a pledge resulting from the pawnbroker's failure to exercise reasonable care in regard to it, but the pawnbroker shall not be liable for the loss of a pledge which could not have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care. The burden of proof to establish due care shall be upon the pawnbroker.

SEC 27. Redemption. — The pledger who fails to pay his obligation on the date it falls due may, within ninety days from the date of maturity of the obligation, redeem the pawn by payment of the principal of the debt with interest: Provided, however, that for the purpose of computing interest due after the maturity of the obligation, the basis shall be the sum of the principal of the obligation and interest earned at the time the obligation matured.

SEC 28. Disposition of Pawn on Default of Pledger. — A pawnbroker may sell an article pawned after the expiration of ninety (90) days from the maturity of the loan in accordance with the preceding section, provided that not less than ten (10) days before making the sale, the pawnbroker gives notice to the pledger by mail addressed to the address of the pledger as shown on the pawnbroker's records notifying the person that unless the person redeems the article within ten (10) days from the date of the mailing, the article becomes the property of the pawnbroker and subject to sale. The pawnbroker becomes the owner of all unredeemed pledges held for one hundred eighty (180) days after the maturity of the loan and no notice need be made to the pledger.

SEC 29. Public Auction of Pawned Articles. — No pawnbroker shall sell or otherwise dispose of any article or thing taken or received in part or pledge except at public auction in his place of business as such pawnbroker or in any other public place within the territorial limits of the municipality or city where the pawnshop has its place of business, under the control and direction of an auctioneer with license duly issued by the corresponding authorities, nor shall any such article or thing be sold or disposed of unless said pawnbroker has published a notice once in at least two daily newspapers printed in the city or municipality during the week preceding the date of such sale. In remote areas where the newspapers are neither published nor circulated notice by newspaper publication shall be substituted by posting notices in conspicuous public places within the territorial limits of the city or municipality where the pawnshop has its place of business. Said notice, whether published or posted, shall be in English, and either in Filipino or in the local dialect, and shall contain the name of the pawnshop, its owner, address of the establishment, hour, and date of the auction sale.

SEC 30. Lien on Pledges. — A pawnbroker has first lien on all pledges for the amount of his loan, interest and charges except:
(A) When the property that constitutes the pledge is stolen or converted property; or
(B) Where a prior lien exists under another statute.

SEC 31. Delivery of Pledge upon Surrender of Ticket. — A pawnbroker shall not be required to deliver a pledge except upon surrender of the ticket, unless the ticket be impounded or its negotiation enjoined by a court.

SEC 32. Multiple Claims. — If more than one (1) person shall claim the right to redeem a pledge, the pawnbroker shall incur no liability for refusing to deliver the pledge until the respective rights of the claimants shall have been adjudicated. If no action be brought against the pawnbroker by either party within the period for which the pawnbroker is required under this Act to hold the pledge, or within thirty (30) days after notice of an adverse claim, the pawnbroker may proceed to sell the pledge subject of adjudication of the parties' rights.

SEC 33. Prohibition. —
(A) No pawnbroker shall:

(B) No pawnbroker shall purchase personal property or any other thing of value agreeing to sell the same hack to the seller at a price other than the original price, at a total charge, rate of interest, discount, or other remuneration in excess of the rate chargeable under this Act.

SEC 34. Closing and Removal of Business Period. — No pawnbroker shall close or transfer his place of business within three (3) months after the expiration of the period for which any article or thing shall have been taken or received by him at his place of business in pawn or pledge, or before any such article or thing shall have been sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this Act; Provided, however, that removal or transfer of a pawnbroker's place of business from one place to another within the territorial limits of the same city or municipality may be authorized on condition that the pawnbroker shall publish a notice of such removal in two local daily newspapers, one in English, another in Filipino or in the local dialect, for a period of not less than three (3) days, the last day of which shall take place five (5) days before the removal, stating in the notice the date of removal, the address of the premises to be vacated and of the premises to which the pawnshop will transfer; and that he shall likewise post in a conspicuous place in both premises one copy of the notice in English and another in either Filipino or the local dialect during the period of its publication in the said local papers.
