House Bill No. 10419

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE MANUEL ANTONIO F. ZUBIRI

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Barangay officials are the primary civil servants and pillar of our governmental setup. However, despite their very important duties and functions, they do not receive proper compensation for the public service they provide. As such, they are left with little to no savings.

As a result of this, many barangay officials often struggle to get by after taking their leave from public service. They have no social security, and are forced to find avenues of income for their day-to-day expenses instead of enjoying the benefits of their years in public service.

In answer to this concern, this bill proposes to provide pension to barangay officials. The proposed source of this pension fund would be the Malampaya Fund, which encompasses part of Special Account in General Fund (SAGF) 151. The Malampaya Fund has had past recorded balances ranging from P140 billion to P160 billion with 80 percent of it remaining untouched each year. The Malampaya Fund’s untapped potential has not gone by unnoticed—in a 2010 report, the Commission on Audit (COA) criticized the misuse of the fund as a missed opportunity.

Congress is urged to make use of the Malampaya Fund toward a worthwhile end, granting barangay officials their well-deserved pension for their years of service. By doing so, they will be free to devote themselves more fully to the demands of their position, and the State will be able to encourage a more effective and vibrant brand of leadership in barangays throughout the nation.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
