RESOLUTION

URGING THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES THROUGH THE COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RIGHTS TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION, IN AID OF LEGISLATION, ON THE ARREST OF HUMAN RIGHTS WORKER RENALYN TEJERO IN BARANGAY LAPASAN, CAGAYAN DE ORO

WHEREAS, on 21 March 2021 at 5:30 a.m., police and soldiers, wearing bullet-proof vests, arrested 25-year-old human rights worker Renalyn Tejero in Barangay Lapasan, Cagayan de Oro, citing an arrest warrant issued by a local court. Upon her arrest, Tejero was handcuffed and her request to call her lawyer or family was denied, and for several hours following her arrest, her whereabouts were unknown. Legal due process was not followed with no subpoena served prior to the woman human rights defender’s arrest, leaving her unaware of the murder allegations against her until she was arrested. Neither Renalyn Tejero or her lawyers have yet been granted access to the relevant documents citing the basis of her arrest and the allegations against her. Renalyn Tejero has had access to her lawyer since her arrest;

WHEREAS, Renalyn Tejero serves as a paralegal officer of human rights organization Karapatan, assisting farmers, indigenous people, and political prisoners experiencing rights violations. Before working for Karapatan, Tejero was a member of the Student Christian Movement of the Philippines and served a student leader while studying Sociology at the Caraga State University;

WHEREAS, according to human rights group Karapatan, Tejero was brought to a facility no one knew about except the police and stayed there until midday of March 21. Eventually the group found her at the headquarters of Philippine National Police (PNP) Caraga at Camp Colonel Rafael Rodriguez in Butuan City;

WHEREAS, according to her lawyer, Tejero never received a subpoena, and was never summoned for a preliminary investigation. Tejero was arrested in connection with murder and multiple attempted murder cases and was unaware of what the police accused her of doing;

WHEREAS, in a statement released on Sunday afternoon, March 21, the Caraga police accused Tejero of being a member of the New People’s Army (NPA), and linked her to two murders in Sitio Inadan, Barangay Magroyong, San Miguel, Surigao del Sur on March 19, 2020. However, it is unclear how there was only one murder case against Tejero when the police claimed that there were two victims;

WHEREAS, before her arrest, Tejero was among the activists red-tagged by a group called Movement Against terrorism-Surigao Chapter. In November 2020, she was among the 32 activists tagged as communist insurgents in posters and tarpaulins all over Lianga, Surigao Del Sur, and Butuan City. The same tarpaulin included Bayan Muna Representative Eufemia Cullamat, and another Karapatan worker, Naty Campos-Castro;

WHEREAS, with these accusations and arrest, Renalyn Tejero joins a group of human rights defenders who have recently been targeted for their alleged membership in “Communist Terrorist Groups”. Red-tagging is a tactic that is repeatedly and systematically used by the authorities in the Philippines against human rights defenders to discredit them and portray their legitimate human rights work as a national security threat, with most arrests and extrajudicial killings of human rights defenders justified under this pretext;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that the House of Representatives conduct an investigation, in aid of legislation, on the arrest of human rights worker Renalyn Tejero in Barangay Lapasan, Cagayan De Oro.
