NINETEENTH CONGRESS
1st Regular Session

House Bill No. 2859

Introduced by Representatives ERIC G. YAP, EDVIC G. YAP, JOCELYN P. TULFO, RALPH TULFO, and JEFFREY SORIANO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In the Philippines, the demand for long-term care services is increasing rapidly through the years. This rapid increase in demand is due to the aging population and additional medical needs of some individuals, especially the elderly. With this, public interest in programs to protect and ensure the quality of life of these workers has increased and must be prioritized.

As defined by the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA), caregivers are hired and employed to meet the physical and psychological needs of infants, children, or dependents whose health is compromised by old age, illness, mental health disorder, etc. - disabilities that affect the daily life of a person both inside and outside their home.

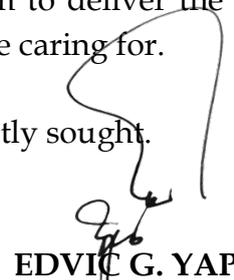

This bill seeks to advance and safeguard the welfare and working circumstances of caregivers across the nation. This will put in place policies protecting caregivers from abuse, harassment, and violence while allowing them to deliver the best and most necessary care possible for the family or home they are caring for.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
