The Risk Management Unit shall ensure that the MIC is taking the appropriate measure to achieve a prudent balance between risk and reward in both ongoing and new business activities, taking careful consideration of risk identification, risk measurement and assessment, risk mitigation, risk reporting and monitoring, and risk governance towards a risk-informed approach to the capitalizations of the MIC.

Sec. 26. Advisory Body. – An Advisory Body is hereby created which shall be composed of the Secretary of the DBM, the Director General of NEDA, and two (2) members from the private sector: the President of the Philippine Stock Exchange and the President of the Bankers Association of the Philippines.

Sec. 27. Powers and Functions of the Advisory Body. – The Advisory Body shall exercise the following powers and functions:

(a) Advise and assist the Board of Directors in the formulation of the general policies related to investment and risk management, and other matters as may be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this Act;

(b) Advise and provide guidance on issues pertaining or related to the plans and projects of the MIF; and

(c) Perform other functions, duties and responsibilities, as it may deem necessary.

The Advisory Body shall not take part in the management or control of the MIF.

ARTICLE VI
Rewards, Incentives and Termination

Sec. 28. Rewards and Incentives. – The officials, employees and staff of the MIC shall be entitled to honoraria, performance bonus, or any similar performance-based compensation as may be determined by the Board and as approved by the President of the Philippines, taking into consideration, among others, the performance of the Fund, the performance of the individual employee or officer, and industry standards and practices. The criteria for the grant of rewards and incentives shall be determined in the IRR, including the formula for the computation of any amount that will be granted to the Board of Directors, officials, employees, and staff of the MIC. Considering the nature of the fund’s intended investments, the criteria and formula shall consider long-term performance of the Fund, acquisition and retention of talent, and the rates of comparators.

Sec. 29. Effect of Separation. – Notwithstanding the separation of an official or employee from MIC, the provision of Section 28 shall apply to the performance bonus that said officer or employee is entitled to receive on account of actual performance by the separated official or employee during the period covered by the performance bonus.

ARTICLE VII
Exemptions and Privileges

Sec. 30. Exemptions from the GOCC Governance Act of 2011. – The President of the Republic of the Philippines recognizes the strict requirements set for the GFIs forming the MIC in that they have higher standards of knowledge and expertise in the fields of finance, economics, risk, and governance, and that there is a need for flexibility to operate, function, employ and retain employees to ensure the successful implementation of the goals of the MIC. In this regard, MIC shall be exempted from the coverage and all of the provisions of Republic Act No. 10149 or the “GOCC Governance Act of 2011” except Sections 15 in accordance with Sec. 19 (e) of this Act, 19, 25, and 26 on the fiduciary duties of the board and officers, full disclosure, and special audit.

Sec. 31. Tax Exemptions. – Any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding, the following transactions and assets of the MIC and MIF shall be exempt from local and national taxes, direct and indirect, that may be imposed under the Local Government Code of 1991, and the National Internal Revenue Code of 1997, as amended, pursuant to the regulations to be issued by the Department of Finance, upon recommendation of the Bureau of Internal Revenue:

(a) All funds, assets, and properties;

(b) All revenues, income, or investment earnings, as well as accruals thereto; and

(c) Purchase of supplies, equipment, papers, or documents.

Importation of supplies and equipment by the MIC and MIF shall be exempt from customs duties, in accordance with the provisions of Republic Act No. 10863, otherwise known as the “Customs Modernization and Tariff Act”.

Provided, That the exemptions granted herein shall be utilized actually, directly, exclusively, and solely for the transactions of the MIC and MIF as distinct legal entities, and not for the purposes of its executives, employees, third parties, and other distinct taxable entities.
Sec. 32. Exemptions from the Government Procurement Reform Act. – Notwithstanding any law or rules, regulations or other issuances to the contrary, the procurement or engagement of the professional or technical services needed in the selection of investments authorized under Section 10 of this Act such as fund management, investment and analysis and advisory underwriting, securities brokerage and dealership, capital market and equity research analysis, and other similar services necessary in the selection of allowable investments under Section 13 of this Act shall be exempted from the provisions of R.A. No. 9184 or the Government Procurement Reform Act and its implementing rules and regulations.

The competitive selection process and guidelines for the foregoing procurement or engagement of the professional and technical services shall be approved by the MIC board.

Sec. 33. Exemption from the Salary Standardization Act. – The officers and employees of the MIC shall be exempt from the provisions of Republic Act No. 6758, otherwise known as the “Salary Standardization Act”, and succeeding laws on salary standardization.

Notwithstanding any law or rules, regulations, or other issuances to the contrary, the compensation of the officers and key personnel of the MIC shall be set based on an objective classification consistent with international standards for compensating investment management professionals managing global assets, taking into consideration the importance and responsibilities attached to the respective positions.

Sec. 34. Designation and Secondment. – For the first five (5) years of its operations, the MIC Board, upon the recommendation of the CEO, shall authorize GFI non-executive personnel to the MIC, as may be necessary, subject to existing guidelines on secondment of the Civil Service Commission (CSC).

The designation of the respective GFIs’ personnel to the MIC involves the imposition of additional and/or higher duties to be performed by said personnel for the MIC which is temporary and can be terminated anytime at the pleasure of the appointing officer/authority. Designated personnel shall continue to receive their salaries, benefits, and emoluments from their respective offices or agencies.

The secondment of the GFIs’ personnel to the MIC involves the movement of said personnel from their mother agencies and offices to the MIC, which is temporary in nature, which may or may not require the issuance of an appointment, and which may or may not involve increase in compensation and benefits. Seconded personnel shall receive, in lieu of their respective compensation from their respective agencies or offices, the salaries, emoluments and all other benefits which their positions are entitled to receive from the MIC.

ARTICLE VIII
Distribution of Net Profits

Sec. 35. Distribution of the Net Profits of the Maharlika Investment Fund Corporation. – In lieu of taxes and dividend remittance to the National Government, at least twenty five percent (25%) of the net profits of the MIC shall be directly distributed in the form of poverty and subsistence subsidies to families falling below the poverty threshold as determined by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA), beginning with the 18.1% of the population, or 19.99 million Filipinos living below the poverty threshold of about P12,030 per month for a family of five (5), per the 2021 Family Income and Expenditure Survey of the PSA: Provided, That the remainder of the net profits shall be remitted to the National Government, to be earmarked for social welfare programs and projects, excluding infrastructure projects: Provided, further, That the share of the net profits remitted to the National Government shall not exceed the proportion of investments to the total fund attributable to the National Government.

Sec. 36. Computation of Profits and Losses of the MIC. – The profits and losses of the MIC shall be recognized in its books. The recognition of profits and losses of the MIC shall be attributable to the GFI and investors which shall be subject to their respective accounting and auditing procedures.

ARTICLE IX
Financial Reporting Framework and Audit of Records

Sec. 37. Financial Reporting Framework. – The financial statements and reports shall be prepared, upon the advice of the Advisory Body, in accordance with pertinent provisions of this Act and its IRR, and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and principles.

Sec. 38. Engagement of an Internal Auditor. – The Board shall appoint an internal auditor, who shall provide written interim financial and management reports as requested by the Advisory Body.
The internal auditor shall be independent from the management of the MIC and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the Board of Directors. The CEO shall ensure that the internal auditor, including the staff, shall have access to all documents and information pertinent to the audit.

Sec. 39. Engagement of an External Auditor. – The Board shall engage, for each accounting period or as soon as practicable after the commencement of the relevant accounting period, an internationally recognized auditing firm to be the External Auditor of the Fund and to audit its financial statements.

The External Auditor shall:

(a) Be engaged annually;

(b) Be eligible for re-engagement; and

(c) Hold office on such terms and conditions as are determined by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 40. Audit by the Commission on Audit. – The books and accounts of the MIC shall be subject to the examination and audit of the Commission on Audit pursuant to Article IX of the 1987 Philippine Constitution. All financial transactions shall be governed by the applicable government laws, rules, and regulations. The COA shall prescribe the guidelines of the audit of the MIC and the Fund under its management in accordance with international best practices. In defining the scope of its audit, the COA shall coordinate with the External Auditor as provided under Section 37 of this Act.

Sec. 41. Disposal of Assets. – Notwithstanding any law, rules, regulations, or other issuances to the contrary, the disposal by MIC, pursuant to its mandate and functions, of shares, securities, and other interests and investments, shall not be covered by existing laws and regulations on disposal of government assets. The aforementioned financial assets shall be considered as forming part of MIC’s inventory of assets held in the regular course of its business activities.
